JUDGING INFORMATION

- An informal judging will take place by audience popular vote. Fair guests will line up at the stage to taste all three snacks, and then vote by tally.
- All participating contestants will be awarded a State Fair ribbon, 1st - 3rd Place.

CHALLENGE FORMAT:

1. Arrive 30 minutes prior to your start time to be fitted for a microphone and to sort out any last minute details
2. Start Time: The MC will introduce the challenge, competitors and Judges. Participants will give a short description of their Cottage Industry business.
3. 60 minutes: prepare and bake your snack. While snacks are in the oven, the MC will interview contestants about the Cottage Industry and take questions from the audience (educational session)
4. Audience Tasting and Judging of the prepared snacks
5. Clean the kitchens (Fair staff will help clean)
6. Judges Announce the Winners and ribbons will be presented

ADDITIONAL RULES & REGULATIONS:

- No alcoholic beverages may be consumed either in front or back of the set; however, it may be used as an ingredient. Failure to follow this rule may lead to disqualification
- Kitchens will be assigned randomly before each round begins.
- No open flame is allowed, including torches and lighters (CA Fire Marshall Regulations)
- Please prepare enough food for 4 dozen samples so that food will be available for fair guests to sample and judge
- Only contestants may be backstage (space limitations and food safety)
- Standard ServeSafe food safety rules and regulations will be followed. Wear closed-toe shoes, trim nails, tie back long hair and thoroughly wash your hands
- Each participant will receive 1 Admission Credential and 1 parking pass to enter the Fair the day of the Challenge, as well as 2 additional admission credentials for guests.
