

Third-party Sites Take Advantage of California State Fair Music Lovers

California State Fair guests do not have to pay over-inflated prices for California State Fair concert tickets from non-approved ticketing outlets. Tickets for reserved seats are still available online at www.CAStateFair.org or in-person at the Cal Expo Box Office

Third-party ticket outlets are selling Fair concert tickets for up to 12 times the face value and making it look like it is coming from the California State Fair. All CA State Fair concerts are FREE with admission to the fair. Guests can purchase a reserved seat for an additional cost to guarantee a spot at the front of the Golden1 Stage. Prices for reserved seats start as low as $12. There is an online service fee of either $2.75 or $3.25, but guests can save if they buy tickets directly from the Cal Expo Box Office at the Main Gate. The Cal Expo Box Office will open starting Monday, June 26, 2017. Check here for hours of operation.

Help us get the word out to not buy from a non-approved ticketing website, so music lovers aren't taken advantage of.
